MARKETING BUSINESS

and hopes, by strict attention to business and the low scale of prices, to command a fair share of public patronage.
I shall always have on hand POULTRY and GAME in their season, and the largest variety of FRUIT and VEGETABLES as early as the SOUTHERN and NEW YORK MARKETS afford. Also Butter, Cheese, Hams, Bacon, Lard, Eggs, &c., at wholesale and retail, which I will sell at prices that cannot fail to give entire satisfaction.
A fresh supply always on hand, of the choicest NEW YORK OYSTERS & CLAMS.— Proprietors of Hotels, ships and families will find it to their advantage to call and examine the stock. W. R. HOLLOWAY.

LADIES' DELIGHT!
RELIEF COME AT LAST.
J. WISSENE'S Washing Machine, Patented Sept. 25th, 1851, is a large 1 b with sine fitted on the bottom, also on the outside of the rubber. It stands on a stool, and weighs about 25 lbs; is simple and handy
and has been thoroughly examined and tried by thousands at the West within the past year, who pronounce it to be the best labor saver ever offered to the public. It has been tested sufficiently long to prove that when ever it has been used properly, it will tell a better story for itself than I can communicate.
Give it a trial, and you will be entirely satisfied of its superior merit.
A. G. GREENE, Agent,
No. 13 Church-st., Newport, R. I.

UNDERTAKERS.
COFFINS and other funeral apparatuses.—The subscribers have on hand and will make at short notice coffins of every description of wood and finish; also robes, trimmings, &c., and if desired they will superintend funeral arrangements and furnish all articles connected with and used on these mournful occasions.
They have also a method of preserving a corpse for any desirable length of time, until friends and relatives can arrive from Europe
or distant parts of our own country.
If required they can give the best of references as to their mode of attending to matters
of this kind.
Orders for the whole or part of these arrangements are solicited, and will be promptly attended to.

Light! Light! Light!—Have you seen Dr. Greese's patent, non-explosive, self generating Gas Lamp? If not, call at
No. 36 Thames-st., where you will find a large assortment of Lamp, Table, Parlor, Hanging, Bracket, and Lamp Lamps. These lamps are non-explosive, giving a beautiful light, soft and agreeable to the eye, and can be burned at the small expense of 2 cents per hour. All kinds of lamps altered to use gas lamps at short notice. Plumb of the best quality for sale. The lamps may be seen burning at any time during the day or evening, at No. 36 Thames-st.
IRA FRENCH.

NOTICE.
THE subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he still continues to carry on the Plumbing Business in all its branches at Joseph Lyon's shop on Commercial Wharf.
He has a large assortment of pumps of the best quality for sale at cost,—also lead pipe, sheet lead, and the usual articles kept by plumbers. N. M. CLAFEE.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 10 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards
of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—
Gives, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents.
Inventions—legal or other advice respected in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent, furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered there elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE successful at the PATENT OFFICE
than the subscriber; and as SUCCEEDING
THE BEST FIRM FOR ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate
during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents
granted in the United States and Europe,
render him able, beyond question, to offer
superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington,
to procure a patent, and the usual great delay
there are here saved inventors.
"Of regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
GILAS MASON, Esq., Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors
that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and successful consideration
at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE, Esq., Late Com. Issuance of Patents.
Boston, February 3, 1853.
"Mr. R. P. Eddy has made for me THREE-TEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend him to all inventors to apply to him to present their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858,
three hundred and thirty-one applications were made to Mr. Eddy, and of these 121 were GRANTED, EVERY ONE OF WHICH was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Hotels.

FILLMORE HOUSE.
MEMBERS of the Legislature and others
will please notice that the "Fillmore House," Newport, will be opened for their reception on the 1st of May next. The various improvements now being made will render this Hotel still more worthy of extended patronage. If possible, than has been in any previous season. Gas has been introduced into all the principal rooms not before supplied with it; the water for table use will be pure Filtered Rain Water. The facilities for warming the House are excellent, and the Proprietor is determined that all other appointments of his House will be such as to ensure the entire satisfaction of all his guests.
WM. W. HAZARD,
Providence Journal please copy—P. 3.

ATLANTIC HOUSE.

NEWPORT, R. I.
THIS Well known Summer Hotel will be opened for the reception of guests for the summer season on the 1st of May. During the past winter and spring, the lodging room furniture has been materially improved by the renewing of bedsteads, mat-trasses, carpets &c., and all the other departments put in thorough order, so that the subscriber is confident that the house will be found in a better condition than it has ever been since it was first opened for the reception of visitors.
The House is delightfully situated on the summit of the Hill, (fronting on Toura park and the old stone ruin,) having an extensive view of the Ocean, Narragansett Bay, with its numerous islands and the surrounding country. Its central situation, moreover, renders it very convenient for boarders to visit their friends at any time, who may be sojourning at the other large Hotels.
The proprietor assures the public that no pains will be spared to make his guests comfortable and contented during the time they may remain at his house.
Applications for rooms will be promptly attended to.
J. B. WEAVER,
Proprietor.

A Good Time.

Expressive as is this caption, it comes very much short of what our Methodist friends experienced on Sunday last. It appears that our former townsmen, the philanthropic and devoted friend of Sabbath Schools, Joseph S. Tillinghast, Esq., of New Bedford, in his labors of love to provide for the clothing and books for poor and destitute children, felt deeply impressed to visit his native place, and do something or the benefit of the Thames Street Methodist Mission Church, which he had reason to believe was in want of just such an effort, as God had put it in his heart to do for it in its present condition. This was friend Tillinghast's original and moving consideration. But then, he remembered, that the Marlborough Street Church, was the home of his youthful days, and that, at its altar, nearly fifty years ago, he had knelt a penitent, and was made the special subject of prayer, who then comprised its membership, and have long since gone to reap the reward of their labors, and the few remaining brethren, the head of whom was none other than the venerable, useful and much beloved minister of Jesus, Daniel Webb, whose praise is not only in this, but in all the churches; and friend Tillinghast, naturally, as we think, chose that place for his purpose, concluding that the occasion would be made far more interesting by the union of the two schools, and, that the amount realized, could be divided equally, which would greatly benefit the Mission School, as it would interest so much larger numbers, than their own congregation. Accordingly, the Marlborough street church was selected by him, and the hour of one o'clock p. m., found its pews occupied by about 600 Scholars and Teachers, of as happy expression, as ever it was the privilege of the oldest inhabitant, to look upon. Patiently at the hour that lover also of children, and proficient of Music, Mr. Eben Tourgee, struck the Organ, and with the children accompanying made the place ring with the true and words of "There is a happy land." That finished, and a most appropriate prayer was offered, by Rev. D. Havens, when the organ and the voices of the children again broke upon the ear with melody seldom if ever surpassed.

Friend Tillinghast, who stood in the altar, facing the schools, commenced a discourse which was listened to by all with deep attention and interest; to the very end. Of this we should like to speak at length, not that we should expect to do it justice, for no effort of ours could begin to do this. To do it anything like justice, the venerable form, the whitened locks, the serene countenance must be seen, and the words of love, instruction, and of warning must be heard, as they fell from the lips of the speaker. We shall not therefore make such an attempt; but satisfy ourselves, and our readers must be satisfied with our word for the statement, that it could not have been bettered as the result will abundantly prove.

Friend Tillinghast now proposed to give to each scholar a new three cent piece, for them to put into the collection bag, for the purpose of purchasing shoes, clothing, &c. for such children as were unable to attend the school for want of such comforts, and soon found a use for 500 of them, and for the same number of books, cards and tracts for themselves.

While the pieces and books were being distributed, the audience was addressed by the Rev. Dr. Haven, editor of the Zion's Herald, in his usual beautiful and entertaining manner; and, we risk nothing in the assertion, that his remarks will be remembered, with Friend Tillinghast's, while memory shall do its office.

The collection takers, and Rev. Mr. WHITE, pastor, proposed that 200 shares be made, of fifty cents each, to be taken by the congregation for the same purpose. Friend Tillinghast commenced by taking 20 shares, and in the few moments devoted to this purpose, upwards of 230 were taken. These, added to the collection, it is believed, will increase the whole amount to about $140, or $70 for each school.

Nor did the good time end here. In the evening Friend Tillinghast addressed the young men, and, as Cobbett says, incidentally the young women, in the Lecture Room of the same house, which was filled with as youthful and as happy a multitude as could be desired. Here the speaker related his Christian experience, and for nearly an hour held the audience with incidents and instruction of the most useful and timely of all knowledge. Mr. HAVEN also contributed his share to the occasion; and when, after 5 o'clock, the meeting broke up, no one failed to realize, if not to say, we had a good time. God bless FRIEND TILLINGHAST!

SMALL POX AT DIGHTON.—It is said that much alarm is felt in a certain part of Dighton, on account of the appearance in that place of the Small Pox.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

LOCAL GOSSIP.

A "daring and bold" forger arrived in town yesterday, from the Gallipagos Islands via New Bedford, per sloop Wm. Penn. It was a monitor tortoise, weighing upwards of 100 pounds. It was brought to New Bedford by Capt. Deloit, of this city, on his recent return from a whaling voyage in the Pacific, and put by him as a present, to Capt. Joseph Parlock, of this city. As he was being carried through the streets to his new quarters, some fishermen thought him "a very big toad."

The Captain of the steamer Golden Gate, who should judge, is not aware of the existence of a City Ordinance requiring steamers to stop at the harbor to slacken speed after passing Long Wharf.

We find the following in a recent number of the New Orleans True Delta. It shows that some things will travel as well as others:

Rhode Island is growing peevish. An illuminated clock in Newport has been darkened because the State would not pay for the necessary gas to light it.

Among the various improvements in streets voted by the City Council at its last meeting, we see no mention made of the detestable nuisance at the head of Srinaborn's Wharf. Perhaps the City Authorities think it well enough as it is. It may be so, but there is a possibility that one of these winters the City may have a broken limb to pay for, caused by this very defect in the street, in which case they will probably become convinced that something had better be done. We really hope this matter will be looked after before the coming of another winter.

The schooner William Newton has commenced her regular summer trips between this city and New Shoreham, making two trips per week. Capt. Dodge goes "skipper," which is "up" for the safety and pleasure of the trip.

We are indebted to B. J. Tilley, Esq., for New York papers fourteen hours in advance of the mail. The New York morning papers may be had at his counter on the afternoon of the day they are published.

The members and the members ONLY, of the Newport company of Antiques and Horribles, are requested to be present at the meeting this evening in the Old Distillery Building, to make arrangements for the coming parade.

By a mistake, in speaking of the baptism of Rev. Mr. White's child, in yesterday's paper, we stated that "the ordinance of sprinkling" was administered, when it should have read "the ordinance of baptism by sprinkling."

"The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."

It is known that the venerable George Washington Parke Custis died some two years ago; and the same papers that announced his death announced also the fact that on his deathbed he liberated his slaves. The will, for some reason, was never allowed any publicity, and the slaves themselves were kept along with the idea that some slight necessary arrangements were to be made, when they would all have their free papers. Finally they were told five years must elapse before they could go. Meantime they have been deprived of all means of making a little now and then for themselves, as they were allowed to do during Mr. Custis's life, and have been reduced to a state of half a peck of unsifted meal a week for each person, without even their fish allowance. Three old women, who have seen nearly their century each, are kept sewing, making clothes for the free hands, from daybreak till dark, with nothing but the half-peck of meal to eat; no tea or coffee—nothing that old people crave—and no time given them to earn these little rarities, as formerly. One old man, eighty years old, bent with age, and who Mr. Custis had long since told "had done enough, and might go home and smoke his pipe in peace," is now turned out as a regular field hand. A year ago, for some trifling offense three sent to jail, and a few months later three more, for simply going down to the river to get themselves some fish, when they were literally starved.

Next to Mount Vernon, we associate "the Custis place" with "the Father of this free country." Shall "Washington's body guard" be thus tampered with, and never a voice raised for such utter helplessness?

AVOIDING THE RESPONSIBILITY.—Brother Noel was "sore troubled" at the scandal Brother Crump brought upon himself by drinking too much, and especially regretted the injury it brought to society at Sharon. So one morning he stepped over to Brother Crump's, and found the old man in a doze in the little porch.

"Won't you take a dram?" asked Brother Crump, as soon as he was made aware of the presence of his neighbor. "Why, yes, I'm not again a dram when a body wants it."

Brother Crump got his bottle, and the friends took a dram apiece. "Don't you think, Brother Noel," said Crump, "that spirits is a blessing?" "Yes," replied Noel, "spirits is a blessing that some of us abuses." "Well, now, Brother Noel, who do you think abuses the blessing?" "Well, it is hard to say—but people talk—don't you think that you drink a little too much, Brother Crump?" "It is hard to say," returned Crump. "Sometimes I've thought I was a drinkin' too much and then again I think I'm not. What is man? A weak worm of the dust! So I let it to Lord to say whether I was agoin' too far in spirits. I put the whole responsibility on him; I prayed et I was drinkin' too much for to take away my appetite for spirits. I've prayed that prayer three times, and he hasn't done it. So I'm clear of the responsibility, anyway."

"The French and Austrian newspapers are much occupied in recounting the atrocities of the other, in Italy. There is one doleful story thus: The Austrians are accused by the French of demanding 'pretty women' to be delivered up by the Piedmontese to the rapacity of their soldiers. The Austrian reply is, that they wanted at Verceil, 'Belindona' for the sick soldiers, and they demanded it of the Syndic. He said he had not any, and could not find any; but they insisted that he must. The French, so say the Austrians, translated this Bell donna (Italian for 'pretty women'), into Johna femina (pretty woman), and so made them (the Austrians) be asking for women, when they only wanted medicine!"—N. Y. Post.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Bremen.

New York, June 26.—The screw steamer Bremen, from Southampton 14th, arrived here at 3 o'clock this evening.

The Canada arrived at Liverpool on Saturday, June 11.

The War in Italy.

The following telegrams are from the Times of the 13th of June:—
Vienna, Sunday evening, June 12.—The following official news has been received: Benedek's corps was again attacked at Melara in the Dnie; loss between two and three thousand men. Total loss at Palestro, Mar 31, was fifteen officers and five hundred and thirty-eight killed, one General, eight hundred and seventy-eight wounded, and six officers, and seven hundred and seventy four missing. Garibaldi's corps threatens the Southern Tyrol from Canonica, Tropa and Bagarina.

It is reported that the French fleet in the Adriatic received a powerful reinforcement yesterday, and it is expected that a landing of troops will soon be attempted on the coast between Venice and Trieste.

It is not probably known where Gen. Gualvis's head quarters now are, but probably at Mantua.

Prince Metternich died yesterday.

Paris, June 11.—An announcement posted up at the Bourse, yesterday, states that Borganio has been taken by Garibaldi.

The Austrians have evacuated Lodi.

The Moniteur has the following:

Turin, June 11, p. m.—The Austrian's evacuated Piacenza, after having blown up the citadel.

The Moniteur publishes a decree appointing Gen. Schramm Superior Commander of the Camp de Chalons, where three divisions of infantry and one of cavalry will be assembled.

Five thousand prisoners have arrived at Marseilles and Toulon.

Marseilles, 10th.—Three steam frigates have landed 2400 Austrian prisoners here.

The remains of Gen. Rospinasse have been brought to this place by sea, and will be sent on by railway.

Turin 10th.—[Official bulletin.] The Austrians have definitely evacuated Pavia, and are said to be at Lodi. The allies are advancing. Gen. Garibaldi occupied Borgio on the morning of the 8th, and then having learned that 1500 Austrians were coming from Brescia, sent a detachment to meet them, which although inconsiderable in numbers nevertheless beat the enemy.

Turin 11th.—[Official bulletin.] The Austrians evacuated Piacenza after having destroyed the citadel and other fortifications. They abandoned to the allies a great quantity of provision, cannon and ammunition. Our troops entered town, invited by the municipality. The Austrians have been reinforced at Brevello, a village in Modena. The evacuation of Pavia and Lodi has been confirmed. After having crossed the Adda the enemy destroyed the bridges.

Turin, 12th.—Last night the Austrians left Bologna, taking the direction Modena. After their departure a popular demonstration took place expressing the sense of the people in favor of the national cause.

Berlin, 12th.—The Preussische Zeitung announced that the Prince Regent has relinquished the pleasure of the jubilee festival, in consequence of the present position of political affairs in which, as his Royal Highness lately remarked, it cannot be foretold whether that next hour may not be our own. (Verbatim.)

Prussia, June 10.—The Dresden Journal of to-day contains the following:—Prussian Commissioners were here yesterday negotiating for the transport, by railway of considerable bodies of Prussian troops. A satisfactory result was without difficulty arrived at, and the Commissioners started for Munich with a similar object.

Rome, 9th.—A great demonstration was made at Rome on Monday last. "Long live the French Government" was shouted before the residence of the Commandant. On Tuesday there was a general illumination.

Vienna, June 13.—Piacenza, Ancona, and Bologna have been evacuated. The Austrians destroyed the fortifications of Piacenza before they left it.

Milan, June 12.—A part of the French have passed the river Adda without striking a blow.

Turin, June 12.—A telegraphic despatch from Bologna announces that the Austrians have evacuated that town.

Paris, June 13.—The Patrie says that the Austrians have completely evacuated the States of the Church, including even Ferrara. The same paper states that the people of Parma have asked that French troops may be sent into their country.

Bologna, June 11.—The Austrians have evacuated Ancona and are retiring by land in the direction of Ferrara.

Trieste, June 12.—The Archduke Ferdinand Maximilian has arrived here.

From the 1st of July next the coupons of the national loan will no longer be accepted by the tax collectors.

Vernon, June 11th via Vienna.—The seat of the chief government authorities of Lombardy has been transferred to Mantua.

Fatal Steamboat Explosion.—New York, June 25.—We learn this morning that the steaming Heien Brown, Capt. Brooks, exploded near Chesapeake city, on the 22d, making a complete wreck of the boiler, maelinery, &c. Mr. Greene, the engineer, was seriously scalded. Capt. Brooks and the rest of the crew escaped with slight injuries. Mr. Greene is a resident of Delaware city, where he has a wife and child. Medical aid was quickly rendered, but when our informant left, it was feared he would survive but a short time. The tug belonged to the Chesapeake & Delaware Canal Co.

Arrest of a Slave Abductor.—Wilmington, June 25.—Francis Mitchell, porter on steamer Marion, was arrested at Charleston, Wednesday, just before starting for New York. He had attempted to abduct a slave, who was found hidden in Mitchell's room.

Political.—Washington, June 25.—The Constitution of this morning reviews Judge Douglas's letter at length, and regards it as a declaration of his purpose to oppose the nominee of the Charleston Convention.

The Baltimoreans are moving for the formation of a "Baltimore Sabbath Association," composed of Christians of all classes, the object of which is to prevent Sabbath breaking.

ANOTHER BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.—

The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer furnishes the following:

"A blooming, fettling, of considerable summers, applied to one of our city lawyers to sue another bright 'lover' in her behalf in order to gain damages from him for her damaged affections! The main evidence of the devoted swain's attachment was expressed in the following bill of exchange that accompanied a bouquet of flowers:

"Dear —, I send u a big box a bucket of flowers. They is little my love for u. The nite shaid menas deep dark. The dog fennel menas I am ur slave.—Rosie red and penis path.—My luv for u shall never fail."
